

Statement Is Issued By Gordon

Offers to Appear Before Grand Jury, Has Own Witnesses

In a late development in the case of attempted arson of the Gordon Building, Feb. 12, August Gordon, Kansas City, who manages the building for his wife, today issued his first public statement on the matter, through an exclusive interview with The Sedalia Democrat-Capital.

In the interview Gordon revealed that the building, since the cancellation of insurance following the arson attempt, has been completely re-insured for fire, liability and rent.

Gordon further offered to appear before the Grand Jury, at any time he might be asked to do so, in order to help clear up the arson matter. He indicated he has some witnesses of his own who would testify, if they are asked to do so, before the Grand Jury.

The building manager stated he was not in Sedalia Monday, for the scheduled appearance of Ralph Messina, suspected "mystery man," who rented offices in the building where some 15 cartons of gasoline and a lighted fuse were found on the afternoon of Feb. 12.

The statement issued by Gordon follows:

"I have never found it necessary to make a public statement before, but since the metropolitan press has seen fit on more than one occasion, to misquote various persons and distort the facts, I feel that a statement is in order.

"I have always found the Sedalia Democrat to be fair and objective in its reporting and therefore, this statement is made through this news media.

"There has been some comment arising from the fact, that Mr. William Brown, Sedalia attorney, represents me. He has been one of my attorneys for several years, and this is a matter of public record. It has been distorted through personal comment and in the metropolitan press, that this arrangement is something new.

"I asked Mr. Brown to speak for me, when these distortions began to appear. Also I was receiving numerous phone calls at all hours at my home. I received a letter from Mr. Brown, asking me to be in Sedalia on Friday, March 10, for the purpose of identifying a man known to me as Mr. Rosen. Although I had a previous important business engagement in Kansas City, I was here Friday, March 10, and learned after arrival that 'Mr. Rosen' would not be here until Monday, March 13.

"I was unable to return on Monday due to previous commitments. On Friday, March 10, I was advised that a Grand Jury was called for Monday, March 13, I then authorized Mr. Brown to advise the Prosecuting Attorney

Top British Actress Dies In a Wreck

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—A skidding, somersaulting automobile flung British actress Belinda Lee 63 feet to her death Monday and injured three Italian movie-makers including her fiancé.

The beautiful box-office star was returning to Hollywood from a scene-scouting trip to Las Vegas, Nev. The Italians have been making a documentary film, not involving Miss Lee, 26.

The station wagon, estimated by a witness to be going more than 100 miles an hour, blew its left rear tire, skidded 1,100 feet, leaped a ditch and crashed upside down, the highway patrol said. Miss Lee, unconscious, lived 15 or 20 minutes.

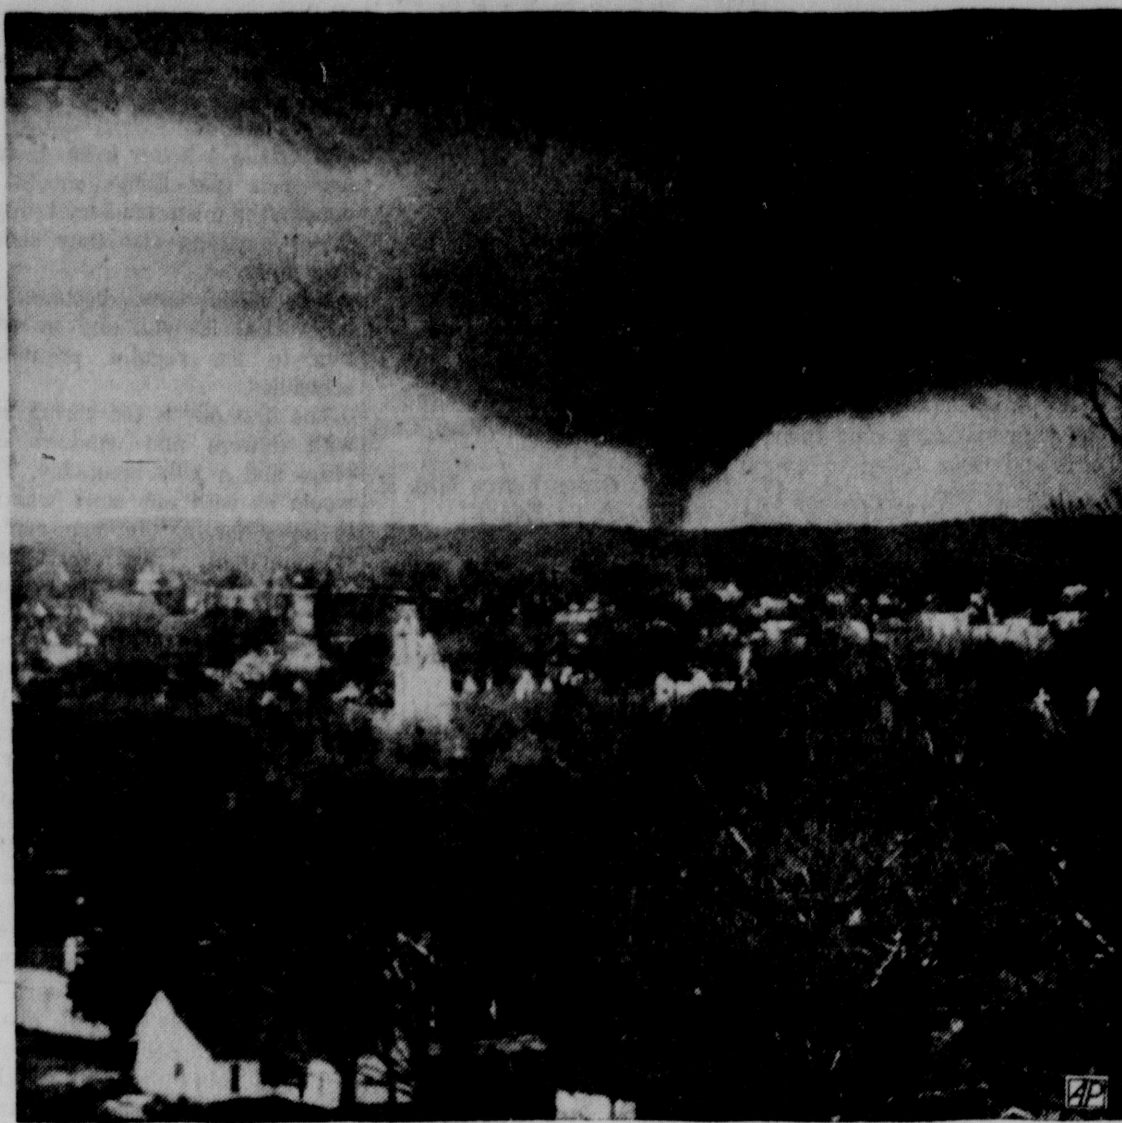

Her fiancé, movie director Gualtiero Jacopetti, 41, suffered a broken leg. He was reported in fair condition at Barstow Community Hospital, where the injured were taken.

Two other men in the car suffered lesser injuries.

The crash occurred about 150 miles northeast of Hollywood.

Miss Lee, born in Devon, England, made her screen debut, in 1954, in "Runaway Bus."

The young beauty was voted one of the top British money-making stars in the 1957 Motion Picture Herald-fame poll conducted by the movie magazine.

Nixon Takes Los Angeles Lawyer Post

Ex-Vice President To Divide Time With Job, Politics

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard Milhous Nixon, who rose from small town lawyer to vice president of the United States, is back in a law office today.

The defeated Republican presidential candidate ended two months of speculation about his future Monday when he told a news conference:

He is joining the large Los Angeles law firm of Adams, Duque and Hazeltine.

He will divide his time between the law office and a separate, privately run political headquarters.

He will scrupulously avoid any legal activity that might lead to charges of conflict of interest.

He intends to provide leadership for the Republican party in California and the nation.

Nixon noted he will work as counsel, not partner, for the firm. As counsel, he explained, he will be paid only for those cases which he handles directly. As a partner, he would share in all fees received by the firm. He said this arrangement will help him avoid any charges of influence peddling or conflict of interest.

The former vice president said he expects to work primarily in tax cases, labor relations and anti-trust suits and U.S. corporations' relations in foreign countries.

He added: "I won't take any matters of using my influence on a government agency to get special consideration for a client."

However, he said he saw little chance of any conflict because he is "a defeated candidate of the opposition party." A conflict of interest might arise, Nixon noted, if he represented a client before a governmental agency with a political appointee left over from the Eisenhower administration.

Last weekend Nixon announced he has no plans to run for governor of California. But some Republicans say they're not convinced he won't change his mind and oppose Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown next year.

Urges New Meeting Spot for Commission

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., today urged the Civil War Centennial Commission to move its mid-April meeting from Charleston, S.C., because of that city's segregation policies. One member of the New Jersey commission is a Negro, Case said.

Stivers Hearing Set

Mrs. Ruth Marie Stivers, arrested on a federal warrant charging her with embezzlement from Sedalia Bank and Trust Company, appeared before U. S. Commissioner Howard L. McFadden in Jefferson City late Monday.

A hearing for Mrs. Stivers, 37, 1516 East Fifth, was set for Thursday and she was released under $1,000 bond for appearance.

A note taker at the local bank, Mrs. Stivers has been formally charged on four counts of embezzlement. Each count is for $100.

Gunman Still On the Loose Despite Hunt

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)

—A quick-on-the-trigger gunman sought for the slaying of a policeman has vanished into the woody, thick-choked hills of Southeast Missouri in spite of an all-out, around the clock manhunt by scores of officers.

Authorities said they were still reasonably certain that Douglas Wayne Thompson, 27, of Bakersfield, Calif., was in the rugged backwoods area near Marble Hill, Mo., 30 miles west of here, where he was last seen.

Thompson has been sought by more than 100 state troopers, sheriff's officers and volunteers since Friday night when a policeman was slain and two others wounded in running gun battles with him and Sammy A. Tucker, 26, of Fresno, Calif., who was captured.

Authorities were somewhat discouraged but still determined to run down Thompson. Lt. E. B. Barnham of the Missouri Highway Patrol said "we're waiting to get a break now...."

chants should enter into both financially and with moral support, was brought up by Damon Hieronymus, is the Soap Box Derby which is being sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and will be held in Sedalia in July.

W. D. Hill, director of the event, was introduced and explained that this three-day event could bring from 20,000 to 60,000 people to Sedalia, depending on support, and two groups of Sedalians will directly benefit from this project, the retail merchants and the youngsters entered in the derby.

Each boy must have a sponsor and there still are 44 boys who want to enter the contest. At present, Hill said, they had only 22 checks from sponsors and in order to have an official race there must be at least 50 sponsors. The deadline is April 1.

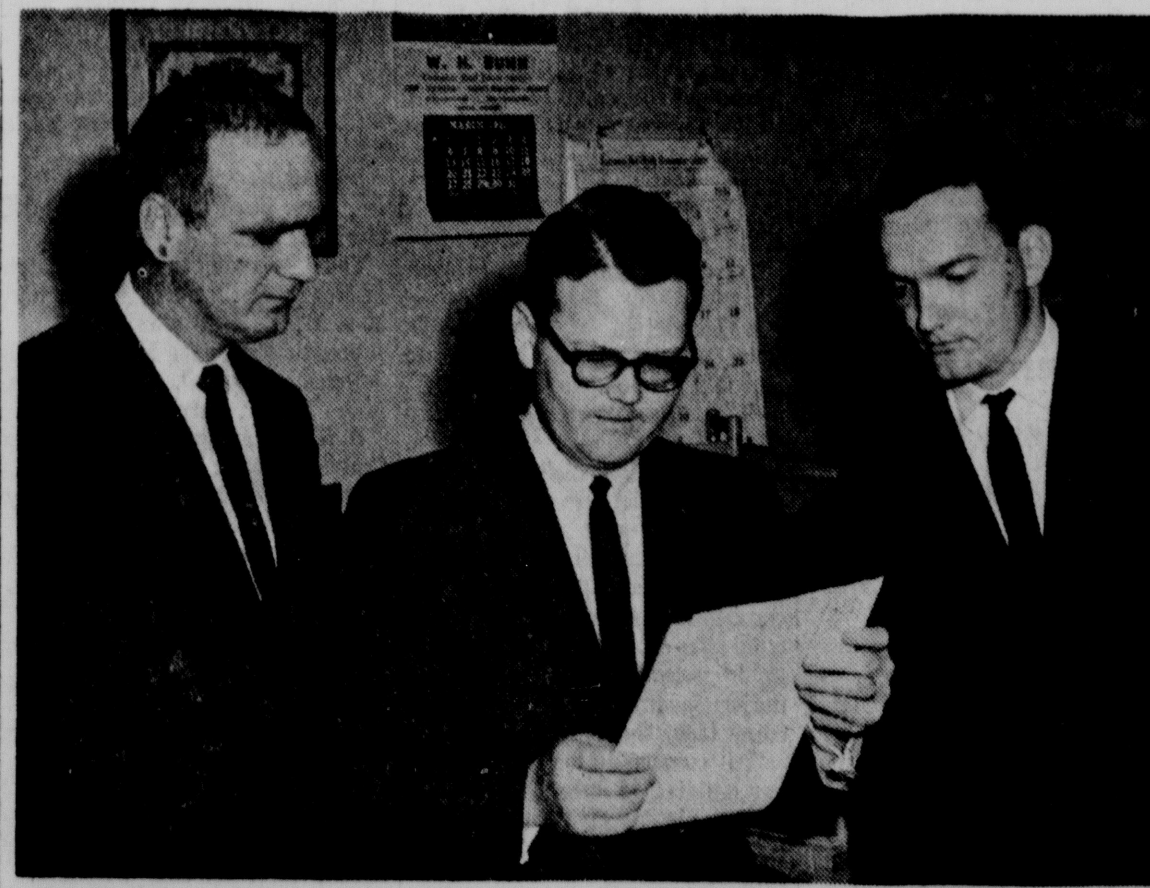

There are only two other contests in Missouri, one in Kansas City and one in St. Louis, and the Central Missouri contest will draw entries from nine counties.

There will be a queen contest and a queen's ball on Friday, a parade on Saturday and the derby on Sunday which will be at the Fairgrounds. The backing of the Sedalia merchants as sponsors will mean the success of the event, and their failure to support it which is to their own interest, will mean the failure of something that could become an annual event, Hill stressed.

Several merchants are already sponsoring the derby and many at the meeting showed interest.

The meeting was presided over by Glenn Lewis, director of the retail merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce, who through posters pointed out the need for each person in the city to assume responsibility of making a break now....

Arson Probers

ASSISTANCE—Robert Kingsland, left, and Ben Ely, right, from the Attorney General's office in Jefferson City, go over material concerning the attempted arson of the Gordon Building in Sedalia, Feb. 12, with Pettis County Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz, center. The two men from the Attorney General's office have been assigned fulltime to assist Fritz in the case. All three were made available to the Grand Jury as the jury was empaneled by Circuit Judge Frank Hayes Monday afternoon. The Grand Jury investigation in the matter must be completed by April 1, Judge Hayes said. (Photo by William Eltzholdt, Bill's Camera Shop).

Area Farmers Will Attend Iowa Meeting

To Reconsider Holding Prices On Sale of Hogs

The National Farmers Organization meat bargaining committee of Pettis County will be among those meeting in Des Moines, Ia., March 16 for the purpose of reconsidering the holding price on hogs.

Attending from Pettis County will be James R. Renssion, T. H. Gibson, Olen Downs, Emmett Schanz, and Clinton Lowery.

NFO officials explained that when the committees established a price of $19.60 per hundredweight on No. 1 and 2 hogs weighing 190 to 210 pounds, the county grain bargaining committees had not determined a holding price on corn.

Since that time the county grain bargaining committees have determined $1.49 per bushel as the holding price on corn, but the hog holding price was figured on the basis of the price of corn at the market at that time. The market price of corn then averaged about $1.20 per bushel.

Simultaneous with plans for the meat bargaining meeting, NFO officials also announced that all county NFO organizations are being asked to complete their "minute men" structures immediately, reporting the names of all county officers, key minute men and minute men.

The NFO "minute men" system is regarded as an important key in any NFO test holding action and this gives speculation of such a test holding action in the near future.

Set April 21 For Death Of Girl's Killer

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Missouri's Supreme Court has ordered Ronald Lee Wolfe executed April 21 for enticing an 8-year-old girl from a church picnic and raping her.

James B. Herd, St. Louis attorney appointed to defend Wolfe, said he may appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Wolfe is 31 and has been in prison most of his life. He was released from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta only three days before he came upon the church picnic at Troy, Mo., on Oct. 18, 1959. He promised the little girl some candy. He was arrested on a street at Hannibal, Mo., the next day.

Wolfe came to the end of the appeal line in state courts Monday when the Supreme Court denied his petition for a rehearing and set the date for his death in the gas chamber.

The high court determined in January he got a fair trial before Judge James D. Clemens in Pike County Circuit Court. Judge Clemens set the penalty after a jury convicted Wolfe.

"His offense was not committed in passion, but deliberately and with malice long forethought," Judge Clemens said. "It was cowardly and brutal."

Sister of Kennedy A Hospital Patient

Let Contract For New Type Jet Transport

Will Up Ability To Move Troops To Trouble Spots

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration has awarded a billion-dollar contract for development and production of a new jet transport plane. The action is aimed at improving U.S. ability to move troops swiftly to any distant trouble spot.

The contract, announced by the White House Monday, calls for Lockheed Aircraft Corp. to develop long-range, high-speed jet cargo and troop carrier planes and build more than 100 at its Marietta, Ga., plant.

The first planes are expected to be ready by mid-1964.

President Kennedy has given high priority to the problem of improving the armed forces' capability for fighting so-called "brush fire" wars, where nuclear weapons would not be used.

The plane, known as the SOR182 will replace older aircraft flown by the Military Air Transport Service.

Specifications call for the new transport to carry troops or heavy cargo at speeds of 440 to 500 nautical miles an hour for distances ranging up to 5,500 nautical miles, according to the load carried.

The plane will be powered by four turbo-fan engines and a pressurized cabin will permit carrying troops at altitudes of over 25,000 feet.

$600 Million Sought In First Step

Kennedy Fears Red Hold Tightening On Latin Nations

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Kennedy today urged Congress to provide $600 million as the first step in aid to Latin America. He said there is "grave and imminent danger that desperate peoples will turn to communism or other forms of tyranny" if help is not forthcoming.

The President sent a special message to the Capitol in a follow-up to his address Monday night calling for a 10-year cooperative aid program of "towering dimension" for south of the border nations. He advocated hoisting a banner with this motto: "Progress yes, tyranny no."

The administration program—outlined by Kennedy in a White House speech to Latin-American diplomats—is keyed to the idea of an alliance of progress. He wants the Latin-American countries to join with the United States in a massive drive to improve living conditions and thereby help out "tyranny from a hemisphere in which it has no rightful place."

Kennedy made it clear he had Cuba and the Dominican Republic specifically in mind in saying this. In his message today, the President asked Congress to appropriate $500 million as an initial step in the over-all aid program, to meet a U.S. commitment made last year at Bogota, Colombia. Eighteen other American republics also subscribed to the idea of mutual help. The U.S. share was authorized by Congress at the last session, but the money hasn't been provided yet.

Congress also authorized $100 million in aid last year for reconstruction and rehabilitation of areas of Southern Chile devastated by earthquakes and fires. JFK urged speedy appropriation of this money "so the task of rebuilding the economy of Southern Chile can proceed without delay."

In calling for fulfillment of the U.S. commitment at Bogota as part of the administration's general aid program, Kennedy told Congress: "The Act of Bogota marks an historic turning point in the evolution of the Western Hemisphere. For the first time the American nations have agreed to join in a massive cooperative effort to strengthen Democratic institutions through a program of economic development and social progress."

Say Federal Aid Should Include All

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Roman Catholic hierarchy of the United States said today that "to grant federal assistance to only part of the American educational effort is to deny to the other parts the chance to grow."

The prelates did not ask that parochial elementary and secondary schools be given the same outright grants provided public schools under the program sponsored by President Kennedy, a member of the Catholic Church.

But they again urged a program of long-term, low-interest loans for private and parochial schools to match any that might be made available through a federal aid program for public schools.

Msr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the National Catholic Welfare Conference Department of Schools, outlined the churchmen's views in testimony prepared for the Senate subcommittee on education. The NCWC, made up of U.S. bishops, archbishops and cardinals, is the spokesman group for the nation's Catholic hierarchy.

Secretary of Welfare Abraham A. Ribicoff Monday refused to express any view on the idea of federal loan aid to church and other private schools. He said he would want to study any such bill before commenting.

However, Ribicoff urged that any effort to provide federal help to private schools should be in a separate bill and not be tacked on to the administration's $2.3-billion three-year program of federal aid to public schools.

Third Negro Entering Georgia University

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—The University of Georgia, which ended 175 years of segregation by admitting two Negroes in January, now is considering the application of a third Negro.

Dean G. B. Huff of the graduate school said the application of Atlanta music teacher Mary Frances Early is getting routine processing.

She was caught in the machinery, pulling him into the machine and causing a brain concussion.

Mr. Cardwell was an employee of the Bishop Gunstock Co. of Warsaw. He was born Dec. 18, 1916, son of the late Jim and Sarah James Cardwell. He was married to Minnie Moon in 1937, and to this couple eight children were born.

He is survived by his wife and all children, three brothers and three sisters.

Funeral services will be held at the Bethel Camp Grounds Church Wednesday at 2:30 p. m. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The body is at the Reser Funeral Home in Warsaw.

that I am more than willing to go before the Grand Jury at their convenience and that information has been delivered.

"I told the law enforcement officers that I would be willing to go to the Police Station in Kansas City or elsewhere for the purpose of identification. I was never called to do this. I was never told that I should be in Sedalia Monday, March 13.

"Mr. Brown told me on Friday, March 10, that 'Mr. Rosen' would not be here. That his appearance was postponed until Monday. He knew that I had previous commitments for Monday, March 13, that had been postponed from Friday, March 10.

"I have cooperated to the best of my ability with the law enforcement officials. I have answered every question fully and honestly and will continue to do so.

"I am as anxious to solve this riddle as anyone.

"I wanted immediately to offer a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the arsonist. Chief Hamlin advised me not to and told me to save my money.

"Had this catastrophe happened, my wife and I would have been ruined financially.

"Investigation reveals that the replacement cost of only two floors of the Gordon Building would have cost $500,000. We are compelled by our leases to rebuild. To rebuild the three floors would cost considerably more. Our major income from the offices came from the third floor.

"All comments to the contrary, our building is insured. We must keep a night watchman until the sprinkler system is completely installed."

Local Girl Scouts Taking Part in 49th Anniversary

Mrs. Leonard Corson, Mrs. Ted Gardner and Mrs. Herbert Seifert were hostesses to Garden Club No. 2 at the home of Mrs. Corson, 2511 Anderson, Friday, March 10. A dessert luncheon was served to 21 members and one guest.

The topic for the month, "Knowing How to Force Branches," was discussed by Mrs. Fred Lange. Branches from the various spring-flowering shrubs which had been forced into bloom by club members were shown, and the methods used described. The business meeting, which followed, was presided over by Mrs. Don Anderson, president. Various committee reports were given.

Mrs. W. L. Layne, exhibit committee chairman, announced the awards for the March exhibit, "Wearing of the Green," as follows: two firsts, Mrs. E. M. Johnson; second, Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom.

Mrs. Lindstrom presented the horticulture awards to Mrs. Layne first, Mrs. Seifert second. Awards were given for a third group, "Forced Branches." First, Mrs. E. C. Thompson; second, Mrs. Cecil Owen.

The Exhibit Committee surprised the members by presenting lovely gifts to Mrs. Ted Gardner and Mrs. E. M. Johnson, who tied in having the most first awards for 1960. It was voted to make this an annual award to those having the most points both in exhibits and horticulture, to stimulate interest in entering specimens in these divisions.

Mrs. H. C. Johnson read the proposed changes in the council and the club constitutions which will be voted on at the next meeting.

An interesting program on flower arranging by Mrs. Kite, will be held April 19, at the Wesley Methodist Church. Admission $1, luncheon $1. Mrs. Kite will set up a small flower show and lecture on these arrangements.

Mrs. Herbert Seifert told the members of her interesting work with Garden Clubs in Florida and a County Fair Flower Show for which she was asked to be a judge.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Odie Nowlin, 3104 Skyline Drive.

Matter of Clemency

Prominent legal authorities in this country would like to see some changes made in the use of a governor's power to grant clemency in cases involving capital punishment.

What they object to principally is the all too frequent tendency to exert this authority at the last possible moment.

As this applies to individuals under sentence of death, this is seen as extremely cruel. The dramatic open telephone line from the governor's mansion to the death house holds hope of reprieve. But it is also an instrument of torture.

As the belated use of the clemency power affects the general authority of both the courts and the executive, it is viewed as clearly damaging. For the delay in decision permits both these branches of government to be subjected to a wide range of outside pressures which have no rightful place in the determination of an individual's fate.

A governor does not grant or withhold clemency on the basis of the strict trial record. It is for the appeals courts to review the record, consider possible new evidence, seek out judicial error. A governor acts on the basis of the convicted individual's total life record, his character, and background.

In the opinion of some specialists, this picture is one he can start filling out the moment a man is convicted, long before his appeal is taken and heard. The careful amassing of the full personal facts can thus be carried forward at calm pace, free of all external pressures.

Then, if the appeal is denied, the executive will be ready promptly to grant or deny clemency.

He will not have to act in the white heat that affected California's Gov. Edmund (Pat) Brown in the Chessman case last year. Nor will the defendant sit on the edge of the abyss waiting for a telephone call that may or may not come.

Both our executive authorities and our judges have been bombarded in recent years with altogether too much outside pressure. The Chessman affair and the Rosenberg atom spy case were the worst examples.

Necessarily the courts must remain accessible as a last resort in any capital case. But much benefit to individual justice and to the status and effectiveness of free government would be had if the question of clemency were settled early and thoroughly, as certain top legal men sanely recommend.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Lost Letters Snarl Diplomacy

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — When West Africa's most influential leader, President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana, left Washington the other evening he was glowing with praise for the United States. He told friends he was confident that his meeting with Kennedy marked a new era of African-American friendship.

Exuding praise for Kennedy, he took a plane to the British Commonwealth Conference in London.

Just five months earlier the same Nkrumah had taken a plane from New York, bitter against the United States and on the verge of throwing his influence on the side of the Soviet.

The inside story of what happened in between those two visits has never been told and illustrates how aloofness and lost letters can snarl diplomacy, while private American citizens can sometimes straighten it out.

Last September, immediately after President Nkrumah spoke at the United Nations, Secretary of State Herter told the Overseas Press Club that Nkrumah "had marked himself very definitely as leaning toward the Soviet bloc."

The African President, who had graduated from Lincoln University and took a Master's Degree at the University of Pennsylvania, was crushed. Meeting with Edgar Kaiser and Chad Calhoun of Kaiser Industries in the Waldorf after Herter's remark, Nkrumah indicated a wish to talk to Herter.

"Khrushchev has asked me to have lunch with him late this afternoon on Long Island," he said. "But no one from your side has asked me to anything."

Eleven Floors Apart

Calhoun then contacted American diplomats, urged them to arrange a meeting between the Secretary of State and the President of Ghana.

"It's only a few floors between Nkrumah on the 24th floor of the Waldorf and Herter on the 35th floor," Calhoun urged. "Just phone him and he'll run right up those steps."

But Herter never called President Nkrumah, and President Eisenhower, after speaking to the UN in New York, flew back almost immediately to Washington.

Those 11 floors of the Waldorf Tower separating the No. 1 leader of West Africa and the top leaders of the West remained as wide, diplomatically speaking, as the Atlantic Ocean.

Returning to Africa, Nkrumah proceeded to demand that all diplomats leave the Congo, and that only African troops serve under the UN. He followed an extreme neutralist, if not anti-American course.

During the intervening five months, Calhoun, who is helping to develop a hydro-electric project on the Volta River, had further meetings with Nkrumah in Ghana. In one of them, on Feb. 17, the two reviewed the bad press Nkrumah was getting in the United States, the country where he was educated and which had encouraged his fight for independence.

Nkrumah, explaining his views to Calhoun, remarked: "I wrote all this in a personal letter to Kennedy right after his inauguration, but have never received a reply."

That afternoon, Calhoun, visiting with the new American Ambassador to Ghana, Francis Russell, asked if Nkrumah had ever said anything to him about a letter he wrote to Kennedy.

"No," replied the Ambassador. "But I delivered a letter from President Kennedy for Nkrumah to the Foreign Minister on Feb. 2."

Missing Letters

Later that afternoon Nkrumah returned from entertaining President Leonid Brezhnev of the Soviet, who was making a triumphal tour through Africa, and Calhoun saw Nkrumah again. He told him that Kennedy had written him a letter.

"I never heard of the letter," Nkrumah said. It developed that the Foreign Minister had not bothered to deliver a letter from the President of the United States. When Nkrumah finally got it, he told Calhoun: "This is a wonderfully warm letter. I have just finished dictating a reply."

"You should start dealing directly with the American Ambassador," Calhoun told him. "Then you wouldn't have your Foreign Minister sit on an important letter like this."

Calhoun flew back to Washington on Feb. 20 and by coincidence, dined that night at the home of Mrs. Florence Mahoney where he met Fred Dutton, Secretary of the Kennedy Cabinet, and Lady Jackson, who writes under the name Barbara Ward. He told of the lost letter and the chance Kennedy had to repair our lagging prestige in Africa if he would invite President Nkrumah to Washington.

Next day Dutton took the matter up at the White House while Lady Jackson, who had known Kennedy when his father was Ambassador in London, wrote to the President direct.

Another Lost Letter

But at the White House, no one could find Nkrumah's letter. It was 12 pages long and was addressed from one President to another. Yet no one could find it. And it was not until Feb. 24, three days later, that the letter was located.

Earlier, State Department officials had been telling Kennedy that Nkrumah had failed to answer his letter of Feb. 2, which proved that he was pro-Soviet.

When Nkrumah's letter was finally located and the proposed invitation to Nkrumah placed before Kennedy, however, he acted fast. Last December, the President-elect had turned down a proposal by Sen. Wayne Morse that he and Adlai Stevenson come to New York to meet all the UN Ambassadors before they returned home. But more recently, Kennedy has been reading all State Department telegrams on Africa so carefully that diplomats have nicknamed him "The African Desk Officer."

When Nkrumah finally arrived, Kennedy kept reminding him that Americans are Revolutionaries who fought and died for their freedom from Britain and would be on the side of every African state — even if it meant siding against our closest European Allies.

After their session was over and Kennedy had given Nkrumah an autographed book, "Strategy of Peace," the African President was visibly touched. He was convinced, he told friends, Kennedy meant what he said and that a new era of African-American friendship had been launched.

USSR Labor Shortage

If this country were on better terms with Russia some of our unemployment problems might be solved. There is a shortage of labor in that country. There is a serious unemployment crisis in this country.

From 5,000,000 to 6,000,000 women will have to shift from kitchen chores to full time jobs by 1965 if the labor needs of the current Soviet Seven Year Plan are to be met.

With more housewives going into full time jobs the Soviet government is stepping up its program for building boarding schools, kindergartens and nurseries to free these women from domestic and maternal responsibilities.

But how many Americans would like to work in Russia, even for the sake of keeping Russian women at home?

In Russia, the children belong to the State, the State comes first. In America, the home is still sacred, and parents for the most part, desire and are expected to create a feeling of security for their children in a home in which they all share.

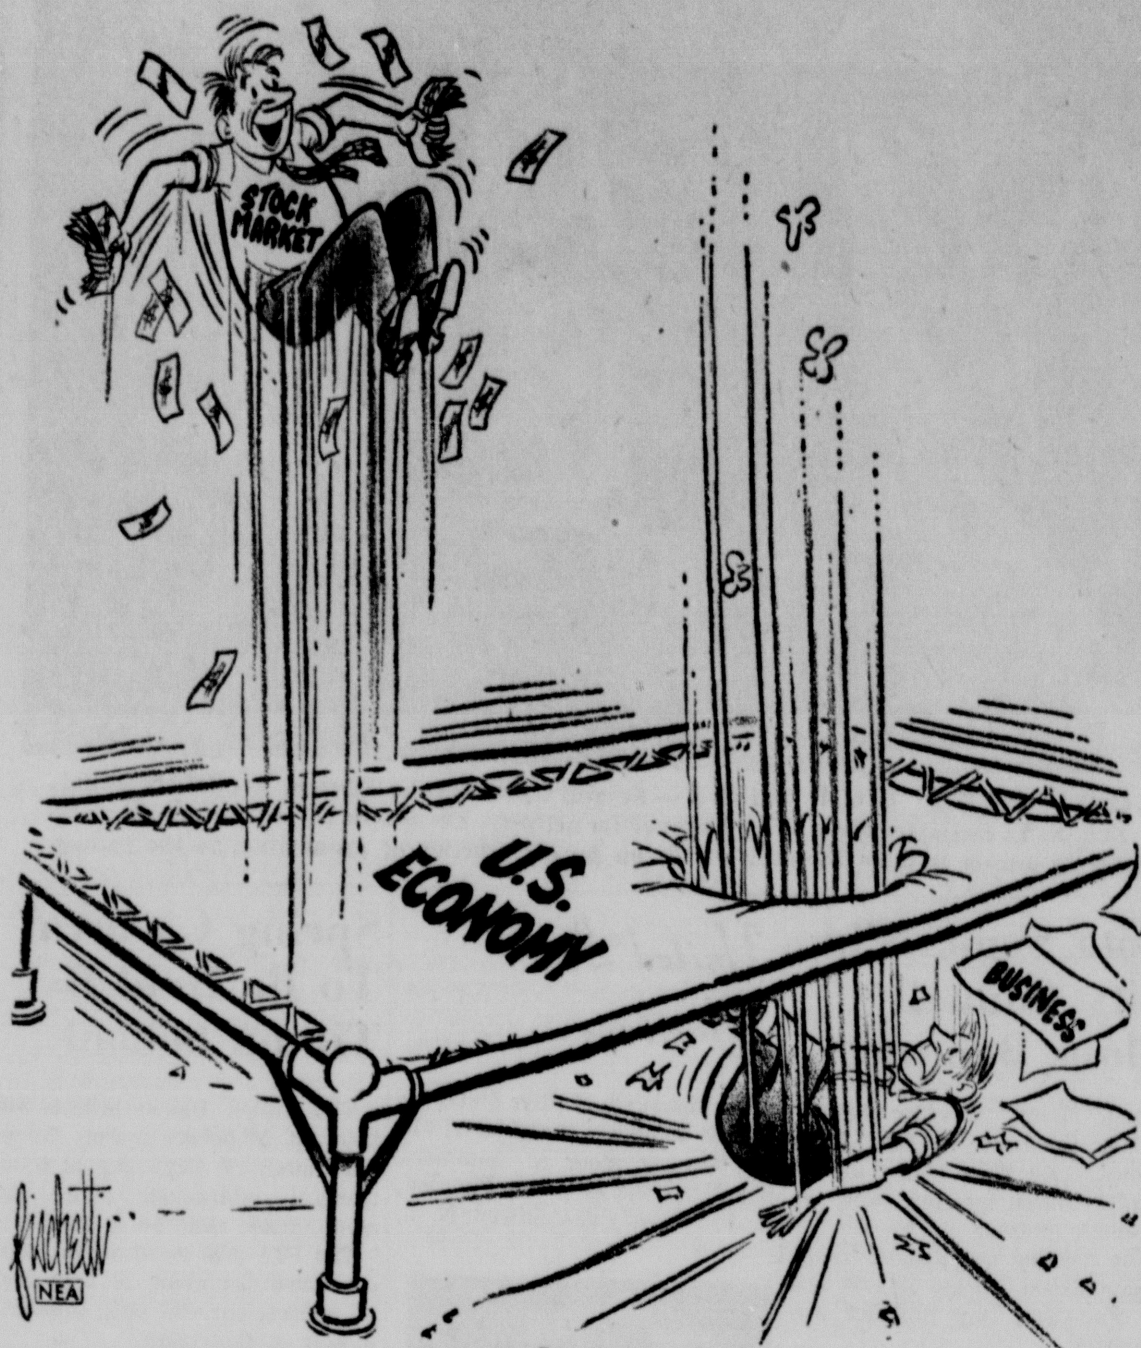

Many mothers have to work in this country but not in street cleaning, subway sweeping and other jobs usually done by men.

Cost of Job Aid

Jobless benefit payments rose almost 20 per cent in 1960. That amounted to nearly half a billion dollars, or 19.6 per cent above 1959. The figures are reported by Commerce Clearing House.

On the average, the states paid out $1.19 to jobless workers for every dollar paid in unemployment insurance taxes during the year. Twenty-three states exceeded the average, while 27 states and the District of Columbia managed to hold the outgo-income ratio below the average. At the end of the year, the reserve accounts of 30 states were below 1959 year-end totals.

The World Today

Nixon's Future Not Even Clear to Him

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The only thing clear about Richard M. Nixon's political future is that it isn't clear at all, even to him.

The former vice president made a statement to Republicans which has been interpreted as meaning he won't run for governor in California in 1962.

There is one simple rule for deciding when a politician will not run for office. That's when he says: "I will not be a candidate under any circumstances."

Nixon's didn't go that far in telling California Republicans he will not be Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown's opponent in 1962.

What he said was: "I am not a candidate. I have no intention to be a candidate or institute a draft."

Having no intention now and being persuaded later to run are not the same thing. And, while he said he would not start a move to draft him, he didn't say he would turn down a draft if someone else started it.

And he was even less precise about his ideas on running for the presidency again in 1964 or 1968, and understandably so.

The New York Times reported he told confidants he had no plans at present to run for the White House again.

But he conceded, the Times said, that his making a second try was not beyond the realm of possibility.

There is a simple interpretation for this: Right now he's not sure of his prospects in 1964, so he's not sticking his neck out.

It's questionable that he will be in a position to do any picking or choosing in 1964 for he may be in the political discard by then.

He indicated in California he may take an active leadership role in the party. As the 1960 defeated presidential candidate he is the so-called titular head of the party anyway. That could and may become an empty title.

When he spoke of his leadership he qualified it by saying he'd lead only "to the extent that fellow members of my party may desire me to do so."

Already there's some question about how welcome his leadership is.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, most vigorous spokesman for the Republicans' extreme right wing, apparently isn't willing to let Nixon call the shots just because he's supposed to be the leader.

He said if Nixon wants to be a power in the party he should run for something. Goldwater added: "Until he gets elected to some position, he's just going to be a Republican lawyer."

"If Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York is re-elected next year he will be in a much better position to win the presidential nomination in 1964."

So, before Nixon has had time to look around, he's been told in effect: "Anything you get, you'll have to fight for."

Rockefeller, Nixon's only real rival in 1960, will, if re-elected governor of New York next year, be in a prime spot to grab for the big prize in 1964.

In one election after another, with only a couple of exceptions in the past two decades, voters have rejected the Republicans' conservatism.

Judging from this past experience the Democrats figure to win again in 1962 and 1964 unless the Kennedy administration turns out dismally or unless the Republicans get more progressive.

And Rockefeller, not Nixon, represents the progressive wing of the party.

You're a Royal Despot Ruling Over the Economy

By FAYE HENLE

Lawrence C. Murdoch of the Philadelphia Federal Reserve Bank has placed you, the consumer, on his economic-analyst's couch. The personality that he discovers is that of royalty, wielding despotic power over the economy. Your restlessness as a spender is the force behind the current business tempo.

As I read this analysis, the reason for recession amidst plenty takes on a clearer focus. Here are some highlights:

The products and services you covet will not have the explosive impact on the economy that durables and housing do. You've had your fill of split-levels and washers. Replacement demand will be less dynamic.

The consumer market is being broken into fragments. It is not a mass, but a custom market. This has come about as a result of the rise in discretionary income—the money left over after the essentials have been bought.

In many families, husbands and wives are separate spending units. They both have more money to call their own. A third of all married women hold jobs; they add some $30 billion to family coffers.

Sixteen million teen-agers pipe $6 billion yearly into their custom market. Moppets who view Captain Kangaroo dictate how hundreds of millions more dollars are spent.

There are 16 million people over 65 spending approximately $30 billion a year. There's an equal amount being spent by the 10 million single adults.

One thing this splintering demand has done is to boom the "doubles" market. Families with everything now want two or more of many items. With the second item sought to meet a specialized need, they seek a different style or model, whether in a car or an appliance.

Despite the impact of housing developments, giant corporations, giant unions and mass market TV programming you've demonstrated your resistance to being shaped into a mold or homogenized like milk.

That's why culture is a hot item.

There are 42 major American symphony orchestras performing. A billion dollars a year is spent on books. In 1959 twice as many people visited New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art as saw the Yankees play baseball. Ponder the effect on the economy of $2,500 spent on a year at college, versus $2,500 spent for a tail-finned car!

Analyst Murdoch concludes: "The royal family may decree little more than a gently rising economy for several years to come."

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL: Friendly Prince Herman.—The police department at Lancaster, Pa., has had to discharge one of its dogs, named Prince Herman, because he can't get the hang of police work. Herman's trouble is that he is good natured. He won't bite.

Well, more power to Herman. With all the people and nations that are at each other's throat these days, it's encouraging to find a little friendly behavior.

And if the Lancaster police have trouble finding a replacement for Herman, we'd like to recommend a dog in the neighborhood. He will do the job. He bites.

Birth Control Pills Not New To Scientists

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Those birth control pills now beginning to reach drug stores in quantity are "old hat" in scientific circles.

The pills have three major disadvantages. They're expensive, they work only for women, not men, and they have to be taken daily.

To scientists seeking some practical way of curbing the world's runaway boom in babies, none of the pills marketed so far is the answer.

Researchers now are working on a completely new principle—a vaccine—which would not only meet the shortcomings of current drugs but would have this additional factor: the artificially induced sterility could be either temporary or permanent, depending on the dosage.

The pills recently approved by the Food and Drug Administration suppress the reproductive process in women. A hormone called estrogen causes the ovaries to cease releasing ova, or egg cells.

The new principle is immunization, borrowed from standard medical techniques in prevention of disease.

Small doses of polio virus, for instance, prompt the body to build up a resistance, or immunity, to polio.

Under study now at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena is a vaccine which, in small animals at least, makes female egg cells and male sperm cells immune to each other.

Dr. Albert Tyler, professor of embryology, has found a way of treating the sperm of sea urchins so that the natural attraction of sperm to egg cells is broken.

He does this by treating the sperm with a solution containing bits of egg cell. The sperm becomes resistant to egg cells with the result that there is no fertilization, no pregnancy.

Tyler hasn't tried it out with humans yet. Much experimentation must be done to determine if immunization will cause harmful side effects.

He sees the possibility that overdosage, for instance, might lead to a strong allergic reaction between spouses.

As a matter of fact, says Tyler, some sort of natural allergy or immunity may be the reason some perfectly healthy couples fail to have babies.

"There are many cases," he says, "of childless people who have had children after separating and marrying other spouses."

Tyler's brother, Dr. Edward Tyler, who is medical director of the Los Angeles Chapter of the Planned Parenthood Association, says "this application of the principle of immunization is one of the most important developments yet made in birth control."

Edward Tyler, who is on the faculty of the School of Medicine at the University of California at Los Angeles, believes an immunization vaccine could be made effective for a year, two years or even longer.

This would be of great benefit he says, in over-populated countries where millions are too poor to afford the 50-cents-a-day pills now being offered to Americans.

Drunken Driving Test Bill Gains Committee Okay

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Criminal Jurisprudence Committee of the Missouri Senate approved Monday night a bill to provide a test of drunken drivers.

The committee heard a dozen or more witnesses.

Sen. Omer H. Avery, D-Troy, sponsored the bill, which would compel persons arrested for drunken driving to submit to blood-alcohol tests.

Witnesses he called sold at least part of the audience on the use of a breath analyzer to determine the degree of intoxication.

Robert Welborn, Gov. John M. Dalton's legal assistant, said Dalton approved the bill.

Capt. John Berglund, head of the Missouri Highway Patrol's traffic safety section, said 31 per cent of the fatal accidents in rural Missouri last year involved at least one driver who had been drinking.

His superior, Supt. Hugh H. Waggoner, said the patrol for several years has sought a test of drunkenness.

No opposition was voiced.

TV Actors Surging To Movie Land

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Now Paladdin is going over the hill to join the flickers.

TV actors are pouring out of the corral and private-eye offices to make movies. This is the season for it, now that the TV series are winding up their production years. So we find Chuck Connors planning to play Geronimo, Robert Taylor filming in Formosa, a flock of Warners cowpokes in the Philippines. Even Andy Griffith is going into "The Diamond Bikini," if you can imagine it.

Richard Boone is staying here playing in "A Thunder of Drums" at MGM.

"It's a post-Civil War story," he reported.

Boone will portray a tough cavalry officer who chews out everyone in his command. Only at the end of the movie will we find out what's chewing him.

This is his second film since he started his TV series. The first was "The Alamo," in which he had one of unique film, deals of all time.

"I never had a contract until about the time I was going to the premiere," he recalled. "John Wayne just asked me if I wanted to do it, and I said sure." Boone said he worked a total of six hours and the pay came out to $4,000 an hour.

"When I got back to town," he said, "Duke (Wayne) called up the Rolls Royce dealer and told him to give me whatever I wanted. I went down and picked out a $24,000 Rolls. It was like a dream."

Boone's life in the movies was not always so munificent. He was brought out to Hollywood from New York to appear in "The Halls of Montezuma."

"I made 13 pictures in three years for Fox," Boone recalled. "Most of them were pretty bad."

Then came "Medic" and Paladdin, and Boone was in the chips. There had been rumors he was ready to lay down his gun and quit traveling, but he denied he would part with the series.

Say Red Rebels Are Turned Back At Muong Kassy

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Lao-tian military sources claimed royal troops recaptured Muong Kassy today, turning back pro-Communist rebel offensive headed toward Vientiane.

The reported advance gave encouragement to the pro-Western government's move to work with former neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma in trying to negotiate with the rebels. The rebels have shown no inclination to talk peace as long as their offensive was in high gear.

Muong Kassy, about 100 miles north of Vientiane, fell to pro-Communist Pathet Lao troops Friday. It was the southernmost point in a Red offensive set in motion March 7 with the overrunning of Sala Phou Koun, important road junction on the north-south highway leading to the rebel-occupied Plaine des Jarres in central Laos.

Royal forces encountered little resistance in retaking Muong Kassy, military men here reported.

They said a battalion of Pathet Lao troops had pulled out in face of superior royal forces commanding the surrounding heights.

Merchants Hoping Weather Remains Good Till Easter

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—With three weeks in which to sell Easter finery merchants are praying for good shopping weather—and for consumer attitudes to be unswayed by all the recession talk in and out of Washington.

Despite the large total of jobless, there are 64 million Americans with jobs. Most of them are able to maintain present spending habits and some are in a position to buy more now.

The early Easter, merchants hope, will start the ball rolling. The contagion of optimism could alleviate, if not cure, some of the economic ills that have worried the experts in the uncertain months of winter.

Such hope apparently is what Commerce Secretary Luther H. Hodges has in mind when he says he thinks the economy is now in position to start to move upward.

"I think there's a better spirit and a general feeling that things are going our way and are going to get better soon," the secretary says.

Fairly normal weather in the latter part of February helped increase department store sales volume and sales of new cars. The Morgan Guaranty Trust, New York, notes in its March survey: "This upswing in trade helped to dispel earlier concern that consumers might be succumbing to 'recession psychology.'"

Many merchants are firmly convinced that consumer psychology feeds on itself. Uncertainty about the future of the economy, they hold, cuts retail sales. And as these fall, consumers get more nervous and either hold onto their cash in fear of an upcoming day, or wait to see if prices will be slashed.

A turn for the better in consumer psychology often sets off considerable buying on its own momentum. Merchants say there's nothing like a crowded store to stimulate the buying instinct of shoppers.

The approach of Easter also turns consumers' thoughts not only to parade finery but also to all the other seasonal goods, such as new furnishings for the house or a new car.

This year's early Easter could be a big help. It comes after a rough winter in many parts of the nation. Vernal optimism also would be welcome after months of uncertainty at best, and gloom at worst.

But Easter's sales boost potential is tied closely to the weather. And March is a tricky month. If the next three weeks inspire the robin and the crocus and the peepers to do their stuff, it could inspire the consumers to do their spring shopping early.

The consumer is still the biggest bulwark of the economy. Government spending is large and important in its effect. Outlays by businessmen for more goods, for bigger plants and newer machines can move the economy up or down.

But the total spending of consumers is still the biggest of all. And whether they spend freely or scripp makes a whole of a difference.

K-State Head Terms Corps As Exciting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. James A. McCain, president of Kansas State University, conferred Monday with the director of the Peace Corps and described it as "an exciting new program."

"If I can be of any assistance in getting it started, I shall be happy to do so," McCain said.

(The Kansas City Star in a dispatch from Washington said McCain declined a request that he take over the job of organizing the operation of the corps. The dispatch said he was understood to have refused because of previous commitments.)

McCain conferred with R. Sargent Shriver, corps director, about selection procedures for the program. He also talked with four members of the director's staff.

McCain came to Washington at Shriver's invitation.

After a luncheon with Kansas members of Congress, he left for New York. He said he expects to return to Kansas today. Rep. William H. Avery, R-Kan., was host at the luncheon.

The university president told the congressmen he would like to have a proposed soil moisture laboratory for the plains area located at his school, if it should be a requirement that it be set up at a land grant college.

If it is located there, he said, he believes the university's branch stations in Kansas would be involved heavily in the program.

Patterson's KO Of Ingo Brings Series to End

Winner Happy in Victory, But Is Disappointed With His Performance In Ring

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson's sixth round knockout of gambling Ingemar Johansson has ended their thrilling, three-fight international series.

But what's ahead for the champion, happy in victory but disappointed over his performance, probably won't be known for a while.

It's doubtful that Sonny Liston, the No. 1 contender from Philadelphia will get the lucrative shot although he said again he'd gladly "fight Patterson for nothing just to get a shot at the title."

More likely is Henry Cooper, the British champion, it was learned, although Patterson didn't bring up his name in his post-fight interview.

A left hook to the jaw, a right to the jaw and a chopping right behind the Swede's left ear ended Johansson's bold bid to regain the crown at 2:45 of the sixth round of the scheduled 15-round in Convention Hall.

But the 206½ pound Viking, shrugged off again as a 4-1 underdog, almost pulled off another startling upset in the first round when he floored the slow-starting champ twice with thumping jolts to the jaw with his trusty right. Ingo, himself went down from a left hook to the jaw in the pulsating first round that had the 15,000 fans roaring.

Ingo came to fight, and no question about that. He was in there all the way and was going after the 194½ pound champion when Floyd struck with his flashing combination left and right in the sixth round.

The husky Swede rose up on one knee at nine but then fell back as his legs twisted. He tripped and fell back at the final count of ten.

"I thought I was up in time, and I'm sorry I wasn't," said Johansson. "When he (Referee Billy Regan) say eight, I got a little too anxious and I fell."

Regan said "I had just finished the count of a full ten when he tried to get up. He didn't make the full count."

"When I took him to the corner, he didn't know where he was at. He was bleary-eyed and couldn't have continued."

He said he would like to fight Patterson a fourth time, but the New Yorker, 26, said that's out and other contenders will get the chance.

The beginning was almost like the first fight in which Ingo, a 5-1 underdog, dropped Floyd seven times in the third round and won on a technical knockout. Patterson became the first ex-heavy champ to regain the crown when he flattened the Swede with a left hook to the jaw in the fifth round last June.

Most observers believed the memory of that fearful blow would blunt Johansson's desire Monday night.

But Ingo, going for broke in the first round, stunned and floored Floyd with his dynamic right early in the round. He was up at four but was given the mandatory eight count, which proved to be a major factor in his recovery.

Johansson stormed after the stricken champ and felled him again with a right uppercut to the chin. Patterson got up at three. And again he was given five precious, extra seconds to recuperate.

Only a few seconds later Patterson took over the offensive and dropped the amazed challenger with a flashing left hook to the jaw.

Johansson, however, jumped up at two, and he too benefited from the mandatory eight-count.

Patterson began to pick up steam in the next round. But in the third his legs buckled from a right and he was shaken early in the sixth before he belted Ingo out.

Johansson's left jab, often a flick and a wave and sometimes stiff, kept Patterson back at times and was vital in opening the way for Ingo's attacks. Johansson also surprised the champ by throwing a left and right in combination, something he rarely did before against Patterson.

Johansson was gashed over the right eye in the third round and his left eye was half closed. Patterson was cut over his left eye in the third and cut in the mouth.

The estimated crowd of 15,000 paid a little over $500,000 according to the promoting Feature Sports Inc. The closed circuit film, which handled the theater television, radio and movies estimated its total gross at more than $3 million.

This figures to earn each fighter somewhere between $750,000 and $1 million. The three-fight series earned Patterson more than $2 million and Johansson close to $2 million.

The major part of Ingo's purse, however, has been tied up pending settlement of the United States government's claim for $598,181 in back income taxes.

Patterson, battered and dead tired, said "Ingemar surprised me by coming out fighting. He took a lot of zip out of me in the first round. The first time he knocked me down he hit me as hard as he did in the first fight. The eight-count helped me. Those extra seconds enabled me to clear my head. Also the fact I came in heavier (he and Johansson weighed the heaviest of their careers) helped me. If I were lighter, I might not have gotten up."

"It was good for him that he had an eight-count," said Johansson. "I had to wait."

The Swede said he had no complaints about anything and wanted to continue fighting. He said he would like to fight Patterson or some "top men," including Liston.

Patterson was expected to outline his future plans at a press conference this afternoon.

Wilt Breaks All-time Record In NBA Season

NEW YORK (AP) — Philadelphia's Wilt Chamberlain broke 10 all-time records during the National Basketball Association season, while Dolph Schayes of Syracuse and Cincinnati's Oscar Robinson also had a hand in some record smashing.

In averaging 38.3 points for 79 games, Chamberlain was the first NBA player to score more than 3,000 points. He wound up with 3,033.

His records, in addition to average and scoring, are most field goals attempted, 2,479; most field goals scored, 1,251; most free throws attempted, 1,054; highest field goal percentage, .505; most rebounds, 2,149; highest rebound average, 27.2; most minutes played, 3,773; most games scoring 50 or more points, eight.

Robertson set an assist mark of 9.7 per contest, a total of 690 in 71 games. Boston's Bob Cousy still leads with numerical setups, 715.

Schayes' 676 free throws shattered the record of 667 set by Bob Pettit of St. Louis.

Pirates Back Hurling Staff With Batters

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, backing second-line pitching with the clutch hitting of their front-line batters, have run down all opposition in the early stages of the exhibition baseball season.

Getting a six-hit pitching performance from three rookies, the Pirates used Dick Schofield's two-run homer and a run-producing single by Joe Christopher for a 4-2 victory over the Kansas City A's Monday that brought their unblemished record to 4-0.

The new Washington Senators also are undefeated after edging Baltimore's winless Orioles 14-13. The new Los Angeles Angels dropped their first in three games with a 16-13 loss to San Francisco Giants.

Elsewhere on a rain-shortened program, the transplanted Minnesota Twins made it into the victory column by whipping the New York Yankees 10-6, and the Chicago Cubs beat the Cleveland Indians 4-2.

The Detroit-Milwaukee, Cincinnati-St. Louis and Philadelphia-Los Angeles Dodgers games in Florida were canceled because of rain.

The Pirates clinched it in the fourth on Christopher's single before Smokey Burgess walked to force in a run and give pitching fledglings Tom Parsons, Al Jackson and Earl Francis some working room. Ken Johnson, who gave up Schofield's homer, took the loss for the A's.

Felipe Alou and rookie catcher Tom Haller led the Giants' attack in the seven-homer slugfest with two each while first-year outfielder Manuel Mota also homered, then tripled in a nine-run seventh inning uprising. Bob Cerv and Earl Averill connected for the Angels.

Earl Battey's grand slam homer in the ninth beat the winless Yankees after a three-run shot by Zorro Versalles and Harmon Killebrew's two-run blast had kept the Twins close. Shortstop Fritz Brickell paced the New York attack with a homer and three singles.

had an eight-count," said Johansson. "I had to wait."

The Swede said he had no complaints about anything and wanted to continue fighting. He said he would like to fight Patterson or some "top men," including Liston.

Patterson was expected to outline his future plans at a press conference this afternoon.

Syracuse Nats Open Against The Warriors

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Syracuse Nationals open against the Warriors in Philadelphia, while the Detroit Pistons meet the Lakers in Los Angeles tonight as the best-of-five quarter-final playoffs begin in the National Basketball Association.

The Boston Celtics, defending world champions and again winner of the Eastern Division title, and the St. Louis Hawks, Western Division champions, will await the winners of each series to challenge for the final East-West playoff.

Detroit plays at Los Angeles tonight and Wednesday, with the third game Friday in Detroit. If a fourth game is necessary, it will be Saturday in Detroit. A fifth, if needed, would be in Los Angeles.

If the series ends after four games the winner meets the Hawks Sunday in St. Louis. If the series goes five games, the semifinal will begin in St. Louis Tuesday.

After the Eastern opener to night, the teams will alternate between Syracuse and Philadelphia, with Thursday's game in Syracuse and a Saturday game in Philadelphia. If a fourth game is necessary it will be in Syracuse Sunday, with the fifth game if needed in Philadelphia next Tuesday.

Maurice Podoloff, NBA president, said that if the Eastern series ended after three games the winner would meet the Celtics starting Sunday in Boston. He said no schedule had been drawn past that date for the East.

Cincy 'Cats Are Valley Cage Champs

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The University of Cincinnati's Bearcats are the Missouri Valley Conference basketball champions, but four also rans came up with the season's statistical honors.

Commissioner Norvall Neve's showed: Drake, top offensive team — scoring average 82.5 points a game.

St. Louis, best defensive outfit — holding opponents to 57.1 points on the average.

Bradley, most accurate from the field—49.1 percentage, hitting 798 of 1,622 shots.

Tulsa, best from the free throw line—71.5 per centage, hitting 435 of 608 attempts.

Drake's offensive record included six games in which the Bulldogs scored 100 or more points.

Bradley, paced by All America Chet Walker, was runner-up in scoring with an 81.2 average. Walker poured in 238 baskets out of 432 shots from the field for a personal record of 56.3 per cent.

Tulsa's free throw honors were due to a couple of experts, David Voss and Gary Hevelone. Voss converted 86 of 103 chances while Hevelone hit 72 of 87.

The champion Bearcats finished second in field goal accuracy with 45.8 per cent; second in rebound recoveries, 57.2; second in defense, 60.5; and fourth in scoring, 75.1.

Top rebounder in the league was Gene Estes, Tulsa's 6-5 senior center, with an average of 14 recoveries per game. Cincinnati's all-conference center, Paul Hogue, was second with a 13 average and Walker third with a 12.5 record.

In the individual scoring race, Drake's Gus Guydon was second to Walker with 18.5 points a game and Ron Heller, Wichita, was third with 17.4.

Five Former Champs Lead Junior Cage

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Five former national champions and two unbeaten aggregations head the 1961 National Junior College Association Basketball Tournament, opening today, but there is no clear favorite.

The 16-team field is studded with talent, and all but three of the squads have been to the championships at least once before. New are Brevard, N.C., Burlington, Iowa, and Young Harris, Ga.

Young Harris comes to the tournament with a 21-0 record and Broome Tech, Binghamton, N. Y., is the other unbeaten team 29-0. Defending its championship is Parsons, Kan. The four other former national titlists are Tyler, Tex., Moberly, Mo., Weber of Ogden, Utah, and San Angelo, Tex.

Weiss, Leo Head List For Juniors

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President — George Weiss.

Manager — Leo Durocher. That will be the top echelon brass of the National League's junior club — New York — when it begins operations next year. The Associated Press learned today.

Weiss, who was retired as general manager of the New York Yankees after the World Series last fall, was to be named today. Durocher probably will be appointed field manager of the team sometime in July, ample time for him to begin the organizational job of the club.

The team has called a press conference here today but declined to reveal what would be announced. Weiss refused to confirm or deny his appointment.

"We have been negotiating," was all he would say.

Along with Weiss, the conference was to be attended by Donald Grant, president of the club; Warren Giles, president of the National League; Lou Carroll, National League attorney, and Lou Niss, public relations director of the club.

Grant is a Wall Street stock broker, who is known to be interested in keeping his post with the club only until a top-flight baseball executive could be found.

He, too, refused to admit that Weiss would get the post.

Weiss still is under contract to the Yanks. He is receiving half the salary he was paid when he was active, about $35,000. The contract also specifies that he may not become general manager of another team. It does not prohibit him from becoming president of another club.

Don Larson Sees Spurt Via Bullpen

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — For Big Don Larson, owner of the most cherished pitching record in baseball, this might be a year of comeback—via the bullpen.

Manager Joe Gordon of the Kansas City Athletics hopes the former New York Yankees right-hander, only pitcher to hurl a perfect game in a World Series, can become a relief pitcher.

The three innings Larsen pitched in his first exhibition start, against the Los Angeles Dodgers, buoyed Gordon's hopes. He didn't give up a hit and walked only one batter.

"I think Don is the type a pitcher who could come in for three or even four innings and do a great job," Gordon said.

"Right now I'm of the opinion he could do us a great job as a finisher. It would be great to have a guy like him to bring in in the seventh or eighth inning when you're trying to protect a lead. He has the arm and experience and looks like he wants to pitch. "He has a good fast ball and a good slider. That's all he needs to throw."

Larsen came to the Kansas City club after a 1959 record of six wins and seven losses with the Yankees. Last year, he won one and lost 10 with the A's.

Collapses While Officiating Game

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Prior Evans, 53, of Batesville, Ark., collapsed and died Monday while officiating a game in the NAIA Basketball Tournament.

Evans was stricken at halftime of the game between Anderson (Ind.) and St. Bernard (Ala.) Insurance company executive Evans had officiated at the National tournament the past three years.

May Abandon MU-Kansas Competition

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Athletic contests between Missouri and Kansas may have to be discontinued unless their athletic rivalry is put in better perspective, KU's athletic director, Arthur C. Lonborg said Monday.

He referred to the brawl in the nationally-televased game at Columbia Saturday.

"I feel that if this extreme bitterness continues between the two schools, we will have to discontinue playing each other, at least for a while," Lonborg said.

Other schools, such as Notre Dame and Army, have ended athletic relationships when rivalry got too intense, he pointed out.

"I certainly appreciate the way Coach Dick Harp of Kansas handled himself under trying circumstances," Lonborg said. "He is to be commended for fine leadership in adverse conditions."

Don Faurot, Missouri athletic director, said in Columbia he had no comment on Lonborg's statement.

"But I don't believe any bitterness on the part of our spectators had anything to do with the fight," Faurot said. "Up until the time (Wayne) Hightower swung at (Charlie) Henke, our students were in fine shape."

Faurot said Missouri students "gave the Kansas team a big ovation when it came on the floor at the start of the game, and they did not boo them when they were introduced as was the case with the Missouri players in Lawrence on Feb. 13."

"It's regrettable these things happen. They have no place in college athletics. In that respect, I think our biggest problem is controlling the action of the players. That's something we should work on."

Indians Expect Great Things From McDowell

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Cleveland's Indians expect great things from lanky Sam McDowell, the left-handed hurler they signed last summer when he finished high school.

The club shelled out an estimated $75,000 in bonus money to sign the Pittsburgh youngster who, coaches agree, has shown tremendous improvement.

Possessor of a whipping fast ball, the 18-year-old has the same problem faced by many rookie hurlers — control.

After joining Lakeland of the Florida State League last summer, he compiled a 5-6 record but struck out 100 batters in 105 innings while issuing 80 walks. Then he played in the Florida winter league, where he proved more impressive.

"That winter league helped me a great deal," he says. "I had more control by the end of the winter, and that's a big asset."

McDowell's father Thomas, who played baseball as a catcher, began playing catch with Sam when the youngster was just eight.

NCAA Cage Play Gets Under Way

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 24-team NCAA basketball tournament gets under way tonight at New York's Madison Square Garden and at Freedom Hall in Louisville.

It is the kickoff of four national tournaments which will occupy the hoop-minded clientele for the next two weeks, and will determine if Ohio State can make its national championship stand up. The NCAA semifinals and finals are set for Kansas City March 24-25.

George Washington's Southern Conference champions (9-16) meet the Ivy League champs, Princeton (17-6) in the opener of a triple-header in New York tonight. St. Bonaventure (22-3) next plays Rhode Island (18-8), with St. John's (20-4) and Wake Forest (17-10), Atlantic Coast Conference winners, in the windup.

At Louisville, Ohio University (17-6) goes against Louisville (19-7), and Xavier of Ohio (17-9) tackles Morehead (Ky.) (18-10).

The New York winners, along with St. Joseph's (Pa.) move on to Charlotte, N.C., for the eastern semifinals Friday and Saturday.

Winners at Louisville remain for the Mid-East regional finals Friday and Saturday, with Ohio State — on a 29 game winning streak—taking on the Louisville Ohio University survivor.

Two other regionals start Wednesday night with Marquette (16-10) vs. Houston (16-9) at Houston. This winner goes to Lawrence Kan., for the Midwest finals Friday and Saturday.

Also on Wednesday The West regionals commence at Portland, Ore., with Arizona State (21-5) playing Seattle (18-7) and Southern California (20-6) taking on Oregon (15-11).

Issues Fade Before Paar Leaves Air

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — By the time the Jack Paar signed off early this morning, it was getting a little difficult to remember what the Ed Sullivan-Jack Paar feud was all about.

The name calling and counter-charges had rather obscured the issues, if there ever were any. Fortunately, the Patterson-Johansson fight (on radio) wound up just in time to permit the listeners to switch to the last round—one hopes—of the Sullivan-Paar affair.

Earlier in the evening on the NBC Huntley-Brinkley news show the situation of Sullivan pulling out of the debate was handled in three brisk, sardonic sentences by Chet Huntley.

However, during a station break immediately following the news show (and frequently during the evening) an announcer reported that the debate was off, but urged that we tune in the Paar show anyway to learn all the circumstances.

On CBS, Sullivan's network, Douglas Edwards devoted two or three minutes to a taped interview with Sullivan. Ed was grim, serious and righteous. To a CBS staff reporter's question as to why the debate was called off, he glared at the camera and said, "Paar welshed; choked up and ran out."

That was the end of it as far as CBS was concerned.

Hope for a debate flared again when the Paar show started. Hugh Downs came out and said earnestly we were about to witness "an unusual and important television event."

This proved to be a bit of an overstatement. Paar came out, sat down facing the camera and for 50 minutes—including time out for the commercials—told us what he thought of Sullivan. He started by saying that "Mr. Sullivan has proved to be as honest as he is talented." Almost an hour later, he wound up by stating "Ed Sullivan is a liar." In between, it was pretty much the same, and it was a long 50 minutes.

It was a long, tiring evening. Just what it proved is another matter. But the feud sure gave Ed and Jack a lot of publicity.

Refuse to Return Plane, Crew to Cuba

LONDON (AP)—Britain, acting for semi-independent Jamaica, intends to refuse a Cuban demand for surrender of a DC-4 and its nine-man crew which crash-landed in the West Indies island March 4, British officials said Monday.

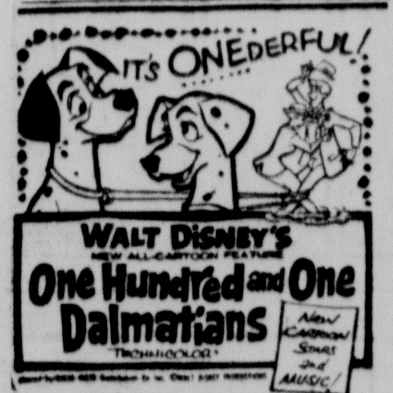

The regime of Prime Minister Fidel Castro claimed last week the aircraft was riddled by anti-aircraft fire after trying to drop arms to Cuban rebels. A note to Britain called for the plane and crew to be handed over.

The colonial office said all aboard the plane were exiled Cubans. Those among them who wanted to do so have been allowed to return to the United States, a spokesman said.

Paar Calls Ed a Liar, Dares Suit

By ANDREW MEISELS

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar said on the air Monday night that "Ed Sullivan is a liar"—and he challenged Sullivan to sue him for libel. Sullivan said he had no intention of suing.

Paar told his nationwide television audience that Sullivan did not tell the truth about the reason for cancellation of their scheduled TV debate. In a courtroom, under oath, Sullivan would have to tell the truth, Paar said, indicating this was the reason for his challenge.

Sullivan was to have debated Paar on Paar's NBC program Monday night over the question of performers' fees.

The debate was called off Monday afternoon, with each side blaming the other.

Sullivan, a newspaper columnist and star of his own show on CBS, said Paar had "welshed" on arrangements for the debate. Paar said this was not true. He said Sullivan did not appear on the videotape show before a studio audience because "he would commit suicide before an audience."

Paar said all of Sullivan's ground rules for the debate had been agreed to—with the exception of two points.

First, Paar wanted an audience.

Second, Paar said he wanted the debaters to be able to ask each other questions, to discuss their differences, rather than each make a formal statement and rebuttal.

Asked to comment on Paar's statement, Sullivan said he did not intend to sue but would still like to debate.

"I won't tell a lie about Paar," he said. "Despite all the smoke-screen and all the publicity from NBC, this fellow walked out on the debate."

The argument came out into the open last week when Sullivan announced that any performer who appeared on Paar's low-budget late-hour telecast for the union minimum of $320 would receive no more for appearing on Sullivan's Sunday night variety program.

Performers receive as much as $7,500 for appearing on Sullivan's show.

United Fund Board Members Disburse Funds

The board members of the Knob Noster-Washington Township United Fund met at the Bank of Knob Noster Wednesday evening for the purpose of disbursing the funds received from the local fall campaign and that of the White-man Air Force Base campaign. The total received was $2,545.25 which included $600 from White-man Air Force Base.

The disbursements were as follows: American Red Cross $291.79; Mercy Hospital $509.05; Salvation Army $351.79; Boy Scouts $194.53; Girl Scouts, Pioneer Trails Council, $194.53; Cerebral Palsy $97.26; Boys and Girls Summer Recreation program $786.30; Emergency Fund $90 and expenses $130.

The board thanked the Rev. Kenneth Diehl for his services as campaign chairman, the team captains, the solicitors and workers.

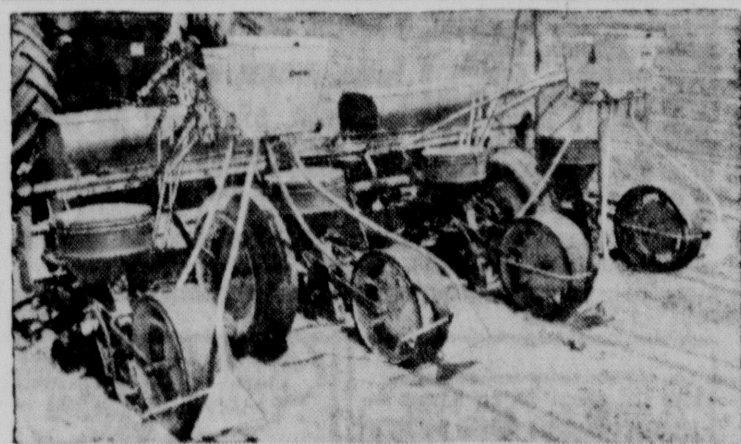

Three of the board members retire this year. They are James E. Jageman, Mrs. W. V. Richeson and J. O. Marshall. These three were appointed as a nominating committee, and three were nominated to fill these vacancies to serve three-year terms each. The new members are, Mrs. L. H. Hughes, Bernie Clark and Maynard Duzan.

Other board members are, Sidney Davis, Fred McAllister, Richard Zink, Mrs. Ray Baker, Mrs. Porter Murray and Mrs. E. O. Price.

There is now a local welfare unit of the Salvation Army in Knob Noster. The local committee is composed of Fred McAllister, James E. Jageman and Billy K. Hall. Twenty per cent of the United Fund disbursement to the Salvation Army will be returned to this unit for use in local emergencies.

Local Girl Scouts Join In Observance

The Old Trails Council is joining with Girl Scouts all over the United States this week in observing the 49th anniversary of Girl Scouts, which was established by Juliette Low in Savannah, Ga., on March 12, 1912.

In the Old Trails Council are approximately 1400 Scouts with 300 adults. Of this total 1052 girls have participated in the camping program.

The Council is made up of Benton, Cooper, Howard, Morgan, Pettis, and Saline Counties. There are 719 Brownies, 629 Intermediates and 44 Senior Scouts.

There are three and a half million Girl Scouts and the theme this year is "Honor the Past—Serve the Future."

Girl Scouts are not only encouraged to become familiar with their own heritage and the origins of Girl Scouting, Mrs. Charles U. Culmer, president of Girl Scouts of the USA, but are helped to prepare for their future roles as homemakers, citizens and professional workers.

During 1961 Girl Scouts Week, the Old Trails Council is seeking out career women in its community in an effort to evaluate what Girl Scouting has meant to them, and to enlist their aid in strengthening the present day Girl Scout program.

Since 1912 there have been 14 million Girl Scouts, and not all have become world famous, but they have consistently enriched the world around them by carrying out the Girl Scout Promise and Laws throughout their adult lives and putting to constructive use the skills and interests which they developed during their Scouting days.

The Brownies, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scouts of today have an equal opportunity and even to surpass the accomplishments of yesterday's Girl Scouts, and good leaders are needed to carry on this wonderful program started 49 years ago.

Priest Had to Flee To Avoid Castro Men

HAVANA (AP)—A young Cuban Roman Catholic priest was forced to flee his home in Camaguey Province to avoid attack by Fidel Castro supporters, church sources said Monday night.

The priest was identified as the Rev. Jesus Guerra, 27, of Senado. The Castro group broke through the front door of Father Guerra's home but he managed to escape through a rear window, informants reported.

When the priest returned to the house, located next to Senado Catholic church, he found his furniture and clothing burned, the informants said. Father Guerra found temporary shelter with friends and later fled the town, the sources added.

Judge Saws Latch To Free a Deputy Clerk

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Larry Filut, deputy district court clerk, got himself locked up Monday, and it took Judge Christ T. Seraphim's personal intervention—with a hack saw—to get him out again.

Filut had locked himself into the judge's washroom and the lock jammed. Maintenance men unhinged the door but it still couldn't open. Then his honor slipped in a hacksaw blade and cut through the latch.

Liberians Salute Yugoslavian Chief

MONROVIA, Liberia (AP) — President Tito of Yugoslavia arrived for an official visit Monday and received five 21-gun salutes. Monrovia was decorated festively with bunting, huge photographs and welcoming signs.

Soviet Ambassador Sees Oil Minister

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Vladimir Bazykin, Soviet ambassador to Mexico, called on J. P. Perez Alfonso, Venezuelan oil minister, Monday. Nothing was disclosed about their talks, but Bazykin said he would try to establish trade relations with Venezuela. It was the first visit of a Soviet diplomat here since Venezuela broke relations with Moscow in 1952. Bazykin is on a swing to several Latin-American countries.

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT NEWSPAPERBOY HONOR ROLL

FOR

LARRY DOWDY

Newspaperboy of the Month

Topping all city newspaper boys in his second month as a Democrat city route manager is the accomplishment of Larry Dowdy, 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Dowdy, 1400 So. Ohio. Larry began managing a Democrat route on January 1, and has managed his route in fine fashion since taking over. Last month, his first as a route manager, he placed fourth and this month, he easily outdistanced the field to take top honors. Larry is a member of the First Christian church and a member of Boy Scout Troop 66. He serves as a patrol leader and holds first class rank in the troop. Listing his hobby as stamp collecting, Larry also plays the saxophone in the Junior Band at Smith-Cotton high school, where he is in the 8th grade. His route lies along So. Osage and So. Montean from Broadway to 16th St.

AREA NEWSPAPERBOYS

NEWSPAPERBOY OF THE MONTH

ROBERT STOREY KNOB NOSTER

Compiling one of the highest scores ever compiled in one month, Robert Storey, Sedalia Democrat route manager in Knob Noster, easily won the Area Newspaperboy Honor Roll. Robert is the 14 year old son of Captain and Mrs. Joseph A. Storey and has managed the Knob Noster route in an outstanding manner since taking over management last June. During the past 10 months Bob has earned two trips to Kansas City, a trip to St. Louis and one to Columbia in addition to several merchandise prizes as a result of the outstanding salesmanship and initiative. Robert is a freshman at Knob Noster High School and a member of the Christian church. He likes swimming and water skiing and builds model trains and cars as hobbies. This is the second month in which Robert has placed first. He also won last August.

OUT OUR WAY

BY J. R. WILLIAMS

Garden Club 3 Meets With Mrs. Mary Ellis

Garden Club 3 met at 1 p. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Mary Ellis, 908 Crescent Drive, with Mrs. E. J. Pflughoeft as co-hostess. Dessert was served to 17 members.

Mrs. Emory Williams gave the program on the day's topic, "Grafting," taken from the book, "The How and Why of Better

Grafting" by Laurence Manning.

Mrs. Williams defined grafting as a surgical operation to give the stem of your desire a root borrowed from some other less desirable plant. Since the root is already growing, grafting may save at least a full year over any other method of propagation, she pointed out.

Grafting can also dwarf a plant, give it exart vigor, or make it healthier, she said.

Congress May Stay in Dark

JFK Keeping Information On Fliers' Release Secret

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress apparently is going to learn only those circumstances of the Soviet Union's release of the RB47 fliers that President Kennedy is willing to divulge.

Despite Republican demands for an inquiry into any concessions that might have been made to gain freedom for the American airmen, Democratic leaders gave early indication that no investigation, as such, is likely to materialize.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said that Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., of the Senate Armed Services Committee might take a look at the situation to see if any action seemed justified.

But Mansfield said he personally would "hate to see a political issue raised on a matter of this kind."

Another highly placed Democrat, who didn't want to be quoted by name, said he is certain Kennedy would raise the issue of privileged communications with subordinates to torpedo any inquiry he didn't favor.

There is some question of whether this privilege accrues to a President elect, which Kennedy was when informal conversations began in Moscow, after the November election, to effect the fliers' release.

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said Monday that 25 Americans attending a scientific conference in Moscow told Soviet officials that the release of Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead and John R. McKone would be a "healthy first step" toward improving U.S.-Soviet relations.

Salinger said that the group included two who now are Kennedy aides — Dr. Jerome B. Wiesner, special assistant for science and technology, and Dr. Walt W. Rostow, deputy assistant for national security.

Olmstead and McKone, only known survivors of the six-man crew of the RB47 plane downed by the Soviets had been held since July 1.

Kennedy announced at his Jan. 25 news conference the fliers had been released.

Administration officials have denied that any deal was made with the Soviets to get freedom for the airmen.

But the Republican National Committee said in its Battle Line publication that Kennedy's "tight lip" policy against airing details suggests "concessions were made to the Russians which might not have been in the best interests of the American people."

Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H., chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said he will continue to plug for an investigation of the whole matter by the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, of which he is a member.

JFK Wins First Round In Congress

By ART EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Fitzgerald Kennedy got 34,221,531 votes in the November election.

Rep. Howard Worth Smith of Broad Run, Va., got 42,809.

But politics is such a strange and wonderful business that, despite this 800 to 1 difference in vote support, it's still not certain whose legislative philosophy will prevail in this Congress, Kennedy's or Smith's.

To be sure, Kennedy won the first round.

In an all-out battle, Speaker Sam Rayburn managed to add three members to the House Rules Committee, of which Smith is chairman.

Since the objective was to break a conservative deadlock on the 12-man committee, and put on a couple of members who, in theory at least, think like Kennedy, this was hailed as a victory for the speaker and for the President.

But the score was so close (217-212), and so many Republicans (22) crossed over to support Rayburn in this jurisdictional dispute, that even those most pleased with the triumph now know what everyone suspected: Kennedy's legislative program is in for rough going.

But the argument over rules had a useful by-product. Many citizens suddenly realized that much more goes on in Congress than meets the casual eye.

And many, too, got their first glimpse of that remarkable 78-year-old Virginia gentleman, Howard K. Smith.

Smith and members of his Rules Committee play an important, though often invisible, role in what type of legislation you'll finally get from Congress.

They decide what bills will be sent to the floor, and when, and what bills will be bottled up. Obviously the opportunities are excellent for a wily committee chairman skilled in dragging his heels. Howard K. Smith, a master heel-dragger, and his job seem destined for each other.

It's one of the ironies of government that when toutsled young Jack Kennedy reported to the House in 1947 Howard Smith — who became a congressman 30 years ago today — already was a venerable member of that venerable institution.

He had been a congressman 24 years before the seniority system finally nodded its leisurely head in his direction and he became chairman of the important Committee on Rules.

Ambassadors Keep Heads Together

Soviet Embassy Apparently Running the Show for Cuba

EDITOR'S NOTE — William L. Ryan has been touring Latin America for the last two months, looking into the inroads of communism and Castroism in that area. This is the latest of his dispatches.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

MEXICO CITY (AP) — One of the first things Fidel Castro's current ambassador did when he arrived in Mexico—even before presenting his credentials to the government—was to call on the Soviet ambassador.

And from that time a year ago until today there has been a steady stream of traffic between the embassies of Moscow's Vladimir Bazykin and Cuba's Jose Antonio Portuondo Valdez.

There is every evidence that activities of the two embassies, less than two blocks apart on the Calzada Tacubaya, are carefully coordinated, and that the Russians are the unquestioned bosses of their common efforts.

Portuondo now is the leading spokesman for Fidel Castro and Castroism in Latin America. He attacks the job with enormous energy, lecturing frequently throughout the country.

Portuondo was a member of the Young Communist League and later of the popular Socialist (Communist) party of Cuba. He once taught in several U.S. universities but left 10 years ago when the heat was on him for his Communist connections.

Able, intelligent and fluent in English, he now is in full charge of Castro intelligence operations in Mexico. Aiding him are members of a top-heavy embassy staff and about a half dozen employees of Prensa Latina, Castro's news service which is devoted strictly to propaganda.

The Cuban ambassador seems to have plenty of money. His agents are highly paid. His propaganda output is expensive. There is one report that he brought from Havana $200,000 to help finance last week's Latin-American conference sponsored by the Communists in Mexico City. The Russians are reported to have put up more than twice that and to have pledged to foot any additional expenses.

Portuondo works hand in glove with Bazykin, who speaks English and Spanish fluently. Bazykin is in constant touch with the Soviet Embassy in Havana and the suspicion has been raised that the embassy in Mexico is in charge of all Communist activities in the Caribbean and Central America.

Bazykin's embassy has been stepped up in size recently and now has about 140 staff members, none of them Mexicans and all of them carefully shielded from unauthorized contact with the outside.

The U.S. Embassy has a staff of about 430. Half are Mexicans. But the U.S. Embassy must deal with issuing tens of thousands of visas, with the influx of 700,000 U.S. tourists annually, with a multiplicity of common U.S.-Mexican trade and border questions. The Russians have no such obligations.

The Russians and the Castro Cubans concentrate much of their energies on recruiting among Mexico's students and teachers and the intellectual class in general. They obviously are making significant progress in building a dangerous fifth column for Mexico.

Mexico is one of the bright spots of Latin America in many respects. The capital has a bright, hopeful look and hums with an energy seldom encountered elsewhere in Latin America. Mexico's economy is sound, its currency strong, its prospects encouraging.

Most Mexican labor unions are headed by strongly anti-Communist leadership. The Confederation of Labor itself is a stabilizing influence in Mexican politics. The Communists have practically no strength in trade union leadership—with one exception. This is the national union of education workers, embracing all education ministry workers outside the university, both in the state and federal school systems.

The Mexican Confederation of Labor leadership disagrees with the charge that the teachers' union is Communist-dominated. But at least six members of its 18-member national executive are known Communists. It is the only Mexican union affiliated with the Communist World Federation of Trade Unions.

Within the union, the Communists and their Castro allies are building for the future, effectively fanning violent hatred of the United States as a political tool in the hands of extremists.

The union publishes a monthly magazine, Magisterio, a slick, cleverly produced expensive review of 96 pages which is distributed free to union members. Month after month it is loaded with pro-Moscow, pro-Castro propaganda. Frequently it carries articles by Soviet Communists. It blasts the United States and the Roman Catholic clergy month in and month out.

The Cuban revolution, students are told, "represents the cause of all Latin America." The friendship of the United States, they read, "is a useless trinket." Fidel Castro, they are informed, "is shaking the world with the impassioned words of a true Latin-American leader" while the United States plots against Latin-American countries.

Mexico's normal school, source of the country's lower and secondary school teachers, is considered a hotbed of communism. The teachers are overworked and underpaid in comparison with other professional people, although the government of President Adolfo Lopez Mateos has taken some steps toward trying to lessen the gap. The prestige of the teaching profession makes it necessary for them to live and dress up to standards difficult to afford on their incomes.

The school of economics of the National University, too, seems to have been heavily infected. It is reported turning out many a Communist-oriented graduate to send into the country's economic mainstream.

The Russian-Castro operation in Mexico is a patient one. And the students and intellectuals, as in all Latin America, get the lion's share of their attention.

Announces Arrival Of Son in Class Ad

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — He was too far from home to pass out cigars, so James Shackelford used a newspaper ad to announce the birth of his son.

The classified ad read: "Notice. On March 6, 1961, the sweetest wife in the world presented me with a son. God bless all mothers. May all husbands love their wives as I do mine."

The father is in San Antonio, Tex., training with the Tennessee National Guard.

Respiration Saves Life Of Youngster

FORSYTH, Mo. (AP) — Refusing to quit, eight persons pumped air into the lungs of a five-year-old boy for nearly three hours after he was pulled unconscious from a swimming pool Sunday.

David Axtell is alive and well today as the result.

The boy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Axtell, Springfield, Mo., was in the water about six minutes before his mother discovered he had fallen. She pulled him out, Ralph DePierer, hotel manager, started mouth-to-mouth respiration. Mrs. Axtell and the others took their turns.

Minutes dragged into an hour—two hours. The workers wouldn't give up.

"We had been going about two hours when he began breathing and we heard a moan from the boy," said Dr. Mary King, Forsyth physician. "It was the sweetest music I ever heard."

With fresh hope, the work continued.

An hour later David regained consciousness. What did he think of it?

David thought he had been hit on the head.

Kennedy's Plea Delays Nuclear Workers Strike

HANFORD, Wash. (AP) — A last-minute plea from President Kennedy warded off a strike of 3,500 workers at the sprawling Hanford Atomic Products operation late Monday night.

The President sent telegrams to the principal officials concerned, saying "because of the nature of the operation at the plant" he urged the strike deadline be set back from 12:01 a.m. today to midnight March 31.

A contract dispute began 7½ months ago between the Hanford Atomic Metal Trades Council and General Electric Co., which operates the science center in southeastern Washington where atomic materials are produced.

At issue are wages, holidays, vacation, sick leave, insurance and several other matters.

At present, the average pay is about $3 an hour. The company offered a three-year contract with a three per cent raise immediately and with a four per cent raise next year, qualified by a number of options. The union asked a two-year contract with a five per cent raise each year.

General Electric employs about 10,000 persons at its big nuclear factory near the Columbia River.

Now an atomic reactor is being built there to operate on plutonium and help the Columbia River dams produce power for the Pacific Northwest.

A Printer Says He Doesn't Believe All He Sets Up in Type

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—A prospective juror for the Joseph Corbett Jr. murder trial was asked Monday whether he was familiar with the case from newspaper accounts of the slaying of Adolph Coors III.

The juror, C. J. Lamb, replied that he had—by virtue of his job as a printer for the Rocky Mountain News in Denver. Lamb added: "I even set some of the stuff in type."

"Do you believe everything you set in type?" asked defense attorney William H. Erickson.

"Oh, no," replied Lamb with a wave of the hand.

Green River, Green Smoke for Irish Day

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP)—An enthusiastic response to the plan to dye the Savannah River green for St. Patrick's Day has brought a further suggestion — let green smoke curl from industrial smoke stacks.

City Manager John O. Hall offered the idea for changing the color of the murky river to green on March 17.

Allied Chemical Co. agreed to help. It expects to use about 1,000 pounds of dye in the project.
